

Standard Chartered Bank is giving a 15% rebate to its credit and debit card holders for dining expenses charged to their cards, from 1 Nov to 31 Dec 2009. Terms and conditions, however, do apply.

The Catch

The full T&C can be viewed here . To summarise, the key terms are:

- Consumers must spend at least S$500 on their cards in total during each month of November and December, if you are to be eligible for a rebate for each month.
- Cardholders must also register via SMS to be eligible
- Only the first 50,000 people to register will get the rebate.
- There is a cap to the rebate of S$150 for both periods for each card

Verdict

A seemingly good deal, but with strings attached. Useful only if you can't get an outright discount at a restaurant with other cards.
