

"For the first time in human history, the number of hungry people worldwide will exceed one billion..." The World Food Programme \(WFP\) is appealing for donations under its "A Billion for a Billion" drive.

The WFP, an agency of the United Nations, is facing a shortfall in funding this year, a year which has seen floods in the Philippines, droughts in Africa and earthquakes in Indonesia.

How to Donate?

Donations can be made here: <http://www.wfp.org/donate/1billion>

Tax Deductible?

Unfortunately, not for people in Singapore, but would you not donate just because you can't get a rebate (20% at maximum)?
